

NEWS RELEASE

January 7, 2008

OLIVER WHITEHEAD APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF NORLAND MANAGED SERVICES

The board of Norland Managed Services Ltd is delighted to announce the appointment of Oliver Whitehead as chairman with effect from January 1, 2008. He succeeds William McCall who has been chairman for the last seven years of dramatic growth for the company.

Oliver Whitehead was previously chief executive and latterly chairman of support services group Alfred McAlpine plc (1993-2007) having been chief executive of Babcock International plc. He is currently chairman of property developer Minerva plc and formerly chairman of IT services provider ITnet plc.

Ian Entwisle, Chief Executive of Norland Managed Services said: "Norland is embarking on a new and exciting phase in its development. I am delighted to be welcoming Oliver who has a strong track record of achievement in transformational growth businesses."

----- Ends -----

Notes for Editors:

- The above image is available as a JPEG.
- Norland Managed Services Ltd is a leading provider of engineering support services in the built environment with offices throughout the UK and Ireland. Current turnover is approximately £150 million per annum.
- Customers include Merrill Lynch, The British Museum, Selfridges, Lloyds TSB and Citi.
- Norland's success has been built on high levels of customer service and its major focus on people and technical skills.
- Further information about Norland Managed Services can be found on its website: www.norlandmanagementservices.co.uk.

For further information, please contact:

Carolyn Proctor, Norland managed Services on 07904 480143 or Carolyn.Proctor@norlandmanagementservices.co.uk.